Boston Fern

POPULAR HOUSE FERNS

Colorado. A new fancy fern of general form and character of Whitmani, but upright and sturdy as the Boston. Fronds are wide, tapering in to tip. Small, 20c. each; large, 50c.

Innisfallen. This handsome new variety originated with us. A strong and rapid grower, handsome green foliage and has a stiff midrib which makes the fronds stand up better than most varieties of Ferns. Small, 15c. each; large, 40c.

Ostrichplume Fern (Whitmani). Gracefully divided pinna giving the whole plant an airy, lacelike appearance; makes beautiful symmetrical plants even in small sizes. Small, 18c. each; large, 40c.

Sparrow. It has dark green foliage which, with its beautiful crested fronds, makes it a most unique, distinct and desirable Fern. Small, 15c. each; large, 40c.

The Popular Boston Sword Fern (Nephrolepis exaltata Bostoniensis). Differs from the ordinary Fern in having much longer fronds, which frequently attain a length of 4 ft. These fronds arch and droop over very gracefully. Small, 13c. each; large, 37c.

The "Roosevelt Fern" (Nephrolepis Roosevelti). In general characteristics it resembles the Boston Fern; it produces many fronds, making it a bushier and handsomer plant; the pinna are undulated, giving it a pronounced, wavy effect. Small, 15c. each; large, 40c.

Fuchsia

FUCHSIAS

15c. each, 3 for 40c.

Black Prince. It makes a shapely bush, very free blooming. Blossoms of a beautiful, waxy carmine or pink color.

Irwin's Giant Pink. The largest double Fuchsia of a beautiful salmon pink color.

Little Beauty. Dwarf, compact; the sepals are carmine, and the corolla deep lilac.

Double Purple. A new variety similar to Lord Byron, but more double in flower.

Lord Byron. A strikingly handsome variety, with calyx of cochineal red, and large, single corolla of deepest violet.

Madame Van der Strass. Very large and double, pure white corolla. Beautiful, reflexed bright scarlet sepals.

Tenor. This double Fuchsia is of extraordinary merit. Violet-blue corolla. Very dark, rich red sepals, waxy luster.

Flowering BEGONIAS

This class of plants is deservedly popular. They are suitable for pot culture in the window for Winter blooming. We can furnish Flowering Begonias from 2 1/2-inch pots

20c. each, 12 for $2.00 — Except where noted

Beefsteak Begonia (Feasti). A low spreading Begonia with perfectly circular leaves, red beneath, and dark, glossy green above, and of heavy texture.

Carmen. A new Begonia of medium size leaves, of a beautiful carmine color. Flowers clear pink.

Coralline Lucerne (The Wonderful Flowering Begonia). The blooms last from a month to six weeks, and are borne in immense clusters, almost hiding the plant. The color is bright coral red, changing to a delicate pink.

Crinkled Beefsteak Begonia. Beautifully arranged, magnificent crinkled, crested and curled, glazed, reddish olive green foliage, topped by clusters of flesh pink flowers.

King of The Reds. Beautiful, glossy green foliage covered with large, dark red blooms. An excellent new house plant.

McBeth. Shrubby in growth, with very deeply indented leaves, which are fine and small. Very free flowering, being constant the year round. White flowers, waxy in texture, carried in panicles.

Prima Donna. Foliage green shaded bronze, covered with light pink flowers, which turn to a dark rose.

Speculata. Shaped to resemble Rex Begonias, and with a silvery sheen on the leaves. Pale pink flowers.

Thurstoni. The underside of the leaves is a rich, purplish-red, the veins very prominent, while the face or upper side is a bronzy-green shaped with crimson and olive, with a peculiar, glossy metallic luster over all. Flowers rosy-white, in large clusters well above the foliage.

Venus. A new and distinctly "different" Begonia. Its dark, glossy, bronze-green, deeply cut leaves combined with its free-flowering habit, make it one of the most attractive plants. Blooms the year round.

Watermelon. Leaves striped like a watermelon. Very attractive. 26c. each; 3 for 70c.

Everblooming BEGONIA
